

ISSUE NO.: 1.1

CUL-PEV

Central University Library Daily Graphic Highlights

FIRST HALF, JANUARY, 2024

Constitution Day Celebration: Don't overhaul constitution: Strengthen public institutions - AG

The Attorney-General (AG) and Minister of Justice, Godfred Yeboah Dame, has apposed calls for an extensive overhaul of the 1992 Constitution.

-Jan. 09, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.01

2023 Health sector under review

In 2023, the country and the world over were still recovering from the aftermath of the COVID-19 pandemic and the Russia-Ukraine war.

-Jan. 09, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.13

GES harmonises code of conduct for pre-tertiary schools

Students who wilfully damage school property shall pay twice the cost of items destroyed, the Ghana Education Service (GES) harmonised Code of Conduct for students in pre-tertiary schools has said.

-Jan. 09, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.16

GTEC takes steps to speed up accreditation process

The Ghana Tertiary Education Commission (GTEC) has introduced a digital platform to speed up accreditation processes for universities and programmes.

-Jan. 09, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.28

Santa 1995 hands over Otwasuom STEM project to ADISCO

The Board Chairman of Genser Power Africa, Otwasuom Osae Nyampong, has, on behalf of the 1995 year group of Adisadel College in Cape Coast, completed and handed over a science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) block to the school

-Jan. 09, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.28

2 Nursing institutions sign agree- ment

The Nursing and Midwifery Council (N&MC) has signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) with the Ghanaian-Diaspora Nursing Alliance (G-DNA) to help improve healthcare delivery in the country

-Jan. 10, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.25

Explore AI to improve quality of education - Prof. Owusu-Sekyere
FORMAER VICE-CHANCELLOR of the Cape Coast Technical University, Professor Joshua Danso Owusu-Sekyere, has said that there is the need to adopt artificial intelligence (AI) strategies in higher education in various ways to enhance learning for greater output and efficiency.

-Jan. 10, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.28

No change in BECE subjects - Ed- ucation Minister

The number of subjects to be written at this year's Basic Education Certificate Examination (BECE) will remain the same as last year's, the Minister of Education, Dr. Yaw Osei Aduwum, has confirmed.

-Jan. 11, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.13

Exempt Ghana School of Law from payment of 25% IGF -Direc- tor

The Director of the Ghana School of Law (GSL), Barima Yaw Kodie Oppong, has stressed the need for the school to be exempted from paying 25 percent of its internally generated funds (IGF) to the government.

-Jan. 11, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.25

Make learning of ICT more practi- cal: New Year School participants urge govt.

-Jan. 12, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.16

GETFund opens scholarship por- tal for prospective students

The Ghana Education Trust Fund (GETFund) has opened its applications portal for undergraduate and graduate local scholarship programme for the 2023/2024 academic year.

-Jan. 12, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.16

Ghana not out of WAEC - Minis- try of Education

The Ministry of Education has stated that Ghana has not pulled out of the West African Examination Council (WAEC) system for the West African Secondary School Certificate Examination (WASSCE).

-Jan. 12, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.28

New syllabus for ICAG examina- tions to be introduced this year

NEW syllabus for the chartered accountancy examinations, organised by the Institute of Chartered Accountants, Ghana (ICAG), will be adopted this year in line with global and emerging accounting standards and guidelines.

-Jan. 13, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.21

GES develops guidelines for Par- ent Associations: Delinks students from PA activities

The Ghana Education Service (GES) has developed the first-ever Guidelines for the operations of Parent Associations (PAs), formerly known as Parent-Teacher Associations (PTAs), in pre-tertiary schools in the country.

-Jan. 15, 2024: Daily Graphic pp.60